

Grades 4, 5, 6

Junior Girl Scouts learn and implement key concepts and skills related to personal money management. As they explore the relationship between lifestyle and occupational choices and imagine themselves as young adults, they'll learn the all-important balancing act between income and expenses as they create and balance their own budgets. CentsAbility's group activities and individual projects offer opportunities for girls to develop and use their fiscal muscles.

(Choose one session)

SESSION A: Mon., October 8 & Tues., October 9, 2007

Where: Service Center

Fee: $15 per girl until Sept. 13, 2007
$20 from Sept. 14 to Sept. 20, 2007

SESSION B: Mon., March 17 & Tues., March 18, 2008

Where: Jones Memorial United Methodist Church

Fee: $15 per girl until Feb. 21, 2008
$20 from Feb. 22 to Mar. 6, 2008

SESSION C: Mon., March 24 & Tues., March 25, 2008

Where: TBA

Fee: $15 per girl until Feb. 28, 2008
$20 from Mar. 1 to Mar. 13, 2008

TIME: 9am - 4pm each day

INCLUDES: CentsAbility workbook, snack, and Money Sense Jr. Badge

BRING: Lunch and drink

CAPACITY: Minimum 10 / Maximum 25 persons

LINKS: Money Sense & Proficiency
Penny Power Badges